COMPTROLLER SEAN SCANLON ON GOVERNOR LAMONT’S BUDGET ADDRESS

(HARTFORD, CT) – Comptroller Sean Scanlon today released the following statement regarding Governor Ned Lamont’s Budget Address:

“Ten years ago, Connecticut was in fiscal crisis. Today, thanks to Governor Lamont and the legislature’s leadership, and our commitment to fiscal responsibility, Connecticut’s finances are the strongest they’ve been in decades.

“The budget the Governor unveiled today capitalizes on the progress we’re making and will help create a more affordable Connecticut for all residents. I am honored to continue working with Governor Lamont, the legislature, and stakeholders to address the needs of today while building a sound foundation for future generations.”
